“Nangia & Co. given tier rating amongst leading tax firm in India by the International Tax Review UK”

We are proud to share with you that NANGIA & CO. has been conferred with the honour and recognition of being rated as a Leading Tax Firm in India by the International Tax Review [ITR].

ITR is a worldwide organization owned by the EUROMONEY GROUP that compiles a directory of the leading tax advisory firms from across 56 countries and jurisdictions. ITR releases an annual publication called the WORLD TAX GUIDE which is a comprehensive guide to the leading tax advisory firms from around the world.

The categorical and uncompromising methodology of assessment followed by EUROMONEY, an infallible verification process with independent client feedback and a multi dimensional criterion based on knowledge, experience, attentiveness and diligence speaks of the high standards of ranking by ITR and our presence therein is reflective of our distinguished values, quality of service and customer satisfaction.

The publications has acknowledged our services by publishing –

“Nangia & Co offers a wide range of tax services to a diverse client base, particularly in the oil & gas industry. The team, led by founder Rakesh Nangia has seven partners and more than 125 fee earners. The firm opened a Singapore office this year, gradually expanding their presence and reputation across the region”

The recognition is indeed an honour and a morale boost for our team in our endeavour to achieve unparallel standards of service. It strengthens our resolve to become one of the top firms in the country through our determination and credibility.
